

Consolidation does not lead to or maintain diversification. We need rules that serve the public interest. Without the free flow of information, this nation is not free. Maintain and strengthen the current FCC rules on media ownership.